

Introduction to employees education

In March 2021, we started Japanese language education and teaching social manner and rules for new employees. The staff will take a Japanese language test with a goal of getting the certifications more than level 3. We will continue to create a workplace where employees can improve their skills.

